

TMB wins the prestigious The Banker Award for the sixth time

Dear Clients, Dear Colleagues, Dear Partners

We are proud and delighted to announce that TMB has been named as the Best Bank in the DRC for a sixth time, collecting the award for 'Bank of the Year 2018 in the Democratic Republic of Congo' at the Bank of the Year Awards ceremony held 29 November in London by The Banker magazine, part of the prestigious Financial Times group.

This highly sought after award, the most prestigious in the sector, is given each year to a single bank in each of almost 120 countries around the world. With regards to the Democratic Republic of Congo, the Bank of the Year prize has been awarded to TMB a record six times, namely in 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2017, and now once again in 2018.

The awarding judges recognised TMB's unrivalled efforts in delivering financial inclusion right across Congo, as well as the Bank's financial strength, and significant investments in information technology.

As the most awarded bank in the Democratic Republic of Congo, TMB is proudly representing our country on the world stage.

The Bank of the Year 2018 award acknowledges the commitment of our staff, highlights the strength of the institution, and acknowledges the loyalty of our valued customers. The Congolese banking market remains highly competitive and we understand that each of our clients has a choice of numerous providers of financial services. We warmly thank all our clients for their trust in TMB, and we remain committed to always providing the very best service.

Thanks to you, TMB has become the Bank of Reference for Congo.

TMB, notre banque pour la vie

Oliver Meisenberg
CEO

Robert Levy
Chairman

